

WHAT IS MY WORKDAY?

The timetable of the teaching staff may include teaching and non-teaching hours.

TEACHING HOURS	Direct face-to-face or telematic contact with the group of students: oral explanations, tutorial group, tests, exercises, questions...
NON TEACHING HOURS	Hours spent by the teacher without students and related to teaching: preparing classes, meetings, corrections, interviews with parents, professional training...

During the students' break time, the teaching staff will be at the management's disposal to attend the students' supervision.

The tutoring carried out in groups will be considered teaching hours. Individual tutoring with a student or individual interviews is considered non-teaching hours.

HOURS PER WEEK
Teachers in the first cycle of child education (0-3 years)	32 hours per week
Teachers of complementary activities	32 hours/week (30 teaching hours + 2 non teaching hours)
The rest of teaching staff	30 hours/week (26 teaching hours at most + 4 non teaching hours)
Child education technicians (0-6 years)	38 hours/week
Technical staff	32 hours
